

There is no demonstrated need for diversity in media ownership. Why? Because anyone who disagrees with me & George Bush & Rush Limbaugh is unamerican and deserves no public support or media exposure. The proposed rule change makes media influence easier for this administration, whom I support. Fewer competing broadcast stations will boost record sales by decreasing public exposure to a greater variety of music & artists...forcing them to buy compact discs if they want to hear any variety.